

St Kilda Historical Society

www.vicnet.net.au/~hsosk
with support from Port Phillip City

Invites everyone along to St Kilda Library

6.30pm Thursday April 22 2010

Maureen Walker presents a talk complementing her pre-Anzac Day display in St Kilda Library on:-

The Homefront WW1 St Kilda

Soldiers' Lounge Patriotic Workers Image reproduced from SKHS Coopers' Online Edition
www.vicnet.net.au/~hsosk

reproduction of poster
in SKHS Archives

SKHS member, Maureen Walker, who is currently undertaking a Master's degree in Public History, talks about her research into the homefront activities of:-

- St Kilda Municipal Council
- St Kilda Patriotic League (incl. local Red Cross, Australian Comforts Fund)
- Organised Sport. YMCA
- The Diggers' Rest – Soldiers' Lounge, St Kilda
- Anti-Conscriptionists
- Anti-German sentiment and internments
- Vida Goldstein and the Women's Peace Movement
- The Churches
- Mourning and Memory

Entry: free to SKHS Members

Non-members : a contribution towards SKHS picture restoration project

Inquiries:

email info@skhs.org.au or ring Dorothy 9537 1967

St Kilda Historical Society

Mail PO Box 177 Balaclava 3183
Office St Kilda Library
Hrs Thursdays 10am
& by appointment 9537 1967

SKHS